I met Leo when I entered my freshman year at BBCHS. His humor was infectious and his help in computer science classes welcomed! I enjoyed getting to know him and he will be missed.

You were a great guy, a character from way back. You will be deeply missed. Stop asking those old wrestlers for autographs up there, you're just as special as they are.

Leo was always a nice and good humored person. It is strange, because I haven't seen him since school, but for some reason he entered my mind the other day. God Bless him and his family.
