“ Mrs. Guimond was a wonderful person ~ my favorite memory of her I guess would be :
I think she had a direct line to St. Anthony ...no matter what she would say "Oh I will say a prayer for you to St. Anthony" ~ And do you know I would always find something I missed placed, She prayed to St. Anthony that I wouldn't lose my job - I got hired by the company that took over the contract, She prayed to St. Anthony that the mass I had wouldn't be cancerous ~ It wasn't !!! So this is for Mrs. Guimond I said a prayer to St. Anthony that he keeps you by his side until we meet again !

“ Dear Guimond Family, you have my sincere sympathy. I remember Mrs. Guimond because I spent many hours with her and Bev learning to do hair! And I still earn a living doing hair some 44 years later. And thanks to her I can crochet with the best of them! I remember that wonderful smile of hers and that she was always laughing at something. I know it's a hard time and you are all in my prayers. Sincerely,
