“ Brian---knowing Kristie has added to the joy in my life. She made me feel part of your family the very first time I met her. The memory I will always hold on to is our time all together when you all came for New Years. She so obviously loved you and was so excited at Lauren's acceptance into the colleges she applied to and was so excited to be going to see Alex. I will hold onto that week forever. We love you all so much. God knew her soul, her capacity to love and care and her dreams. His love is so beyond our understanding and she is experiencing that now--in His presence, His arms, His comfort, His peace and His joy.

“ Met Kristi when she was 19. A sweeter, more caring young woman did not exist. She was a joy to be with, and a dear, dear friend. Thru the years, she managed to remain the same sweet, caring woman,. She took everything very much to heart, and loved deeply. I will miss you dearheart, until we meet again. Love to your beautiful family. Know you will be watching over them.
