“ Billy my brother Deane Burroughs and I Chuck Burroughs camped out in our back yard the night of the 1976 blizzard. We woke up with about 2 feet of snow on the tent and could barely site up with all the snow outside. After breakfast we all headed out to shovel snow and make some money. Say hi to Deane.

“ Billy and my brother Jon were very good friends hanging out in the neighborhood on the South Side. They terrorized the neighborhood but always made me laugh. Billy you will be so missed. We were so proud of how strong you were after you lost your son Corey noun you can see him again.
