“ I had the pleasure of getting to know Adelia Loiselle in 2013 when my mother and Adelia's husband were at Miller Center in Kankakee. She was with her husband every day, always bringing him freshly laundered clothing. Such a dedicated wife. I once said to Adelia while she was carrying a basket of laundry: Young brides have no idea what the vow "in sickness and in health" means. She responded: "Best that they not know." Rest in peace, Adelia. You were a faithful servant on this Earth. I will always remember this good woman.

“ Your mom, Adelia, was a kind, and wonderful woman. I loved going to your house. Your mom was always so welcoming. Seems like we were always out there playing on the trails, in the yard, in the house. Such wonderful memories. My thoughts and prayers go out to each of you.
Blessings and kind regards,

I have a lot of Loiselles in my family history, on my mother's side. Her last name was Normandin. I don't know if we're related but am sorry for your loss.
