“ Adolf was a great friend and co-worker. I always enjoyed working with him at the plant and at function held at St Rose (Lots of Great memories) I will miss his smile and his laugh. He love Emilie so much and missed her even more, but they are together again with Berta and enjoying Heavenly Peace. May God bless all his family and give them peace.

“ Dad was Adolf's supervisor at Henkl. He absolutely loved him. I remember Dad had said he wasn't allowed to see his Mother in Germany for many many years. He couldn't Cross the wall. Dad said his Mother was gravely ill and the Germans Would let him Cross the wall. He couldn't go Because someone already had that time for Vacation. It happened to be dad. He gave up His time and given him time so he could see His mother. My dad's name is Mathen Pete Lambert he went by Pete. Prayers go out to All of his children and families. God Bless you All.

“ I worked with your mom at Saint Patrick school and saw your dad frequently. He was always the first one at the Knights of Columbus fish fry’s, grabbed his container for dessert and sat down. We will definitely miss his smiling face. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. Mose & Dolores Arseneau.
