“ I first met Adolph when he entered St Patrick's GS back in the 50's. We were in the same grade, his parents and siblings having recently immigrated to America from Germany. It was fun teaching Adolph how to speak English. Adolph was a kind, gentle giant type of person. We lived close to the Hungers and played together as kids and into our teen years attending St Patrick's Central HS together. Adolph loved basketball and played on the HS team. We hitch hiked, walked, and Robert (Bob) Hunger, Adolphs brother, and a year ahead of us used his parents car to drive us to HS. Gas back then, was around 27 cents a gallon. We had many good times together with other kids in the neighborhood. We duck hunted and fished together. Adolph served as an infantryman in the US Army stationed on the DMZ in Korea. I met my wife Theresa at Adolph's house We had many good times together and I will miss him.
