“ I miss you, Aunt Agnes. How I enjoyed our phone conversations, which always ended with "I love you, Joanie". You were the only person who still called me "Joanie." You were quite the lady! It always amazed me that when talking with you, a person would never had known that you were 105 years old. You were my last connection to Mom. I loved you, too. Joan (Henrichs) Schluep

“ Agnes was very blessed with so much love in her life. She was my (Kristy) grandmother's boss at Woolworth and a member of the same church. We looked forward to seeing her on Sunday mornings and her lovely outfits with matching jewelry. What a beautiful person inside and out. We were honored to host her birthdays during church coffee hour. We will miss you, Agnes! Rest in Peace Sweet Angel.

“ I'm so glad I was able to talk with Agnes on the phone just a few days before her death. She sounded strong and as optimistic as usual. I have known Agnes since we both worked at W. D. Gousset Sales in 1959! We have kept in touch over the years and were always reminiscing about days gone by. I loved Agnes and will never forget her indomitable spirit. I'm so glad I was able to tell her "I love you", that one last time.

A classic "Agnes" memory: Agnes told me several years ago that as she was out in her front yard (when she still lived on Evergreen Lane) raking leaves, her neighbor came over to ask why she was doing the raking. Agnes, around 100 years old, said the neighbor said, "You could drop over dead while doing that!" To which Agnes replied, "Wouldn't that be wonderful" She is Heaven's gain!
