“ I am so sorry for your loss. I am living out of town and Mom didn't get to me in time to make the services. Mrs. Steinbach was one of the most interesting, and strong women I have ever meet. I will always remember seeing her and your father in the yard, and surrounded by family. I'm very sorry I didn't get to see you all in person and give you my condolences.##imported-begin##Jackie Kilgore(Kelly)##imported-end##

“ What I remember the most of Mrs. Steinbach was how absolutely she loved her children. When I would spend time at the Steinbach house with Terry and Jo, the prayers were said, the homework was done and the chores were expected to be completed immediately. I so loved the experience of being a part of family time when I was there.

Mrs. Steinbach was one of the first professional woman I knew in my life. She was a role model and I did not know how much of an impact she had on my life until I left Kankakee. I went on to college, graduated with top grades, BSW, MSW and raised a family at the same time. These are things I remember her doing long before it was ok for moms to work and have a family too.

I would love to hear from the Steinbach family, we have lost contact through the years. I just wanted you all to know your mom was remembered and we send our prayers and thoughts.

My parents, Dorothy and William Davis are living in Arvada, Colorado, doing fine as they enter their eighties. My brothers, Jim, John and Steve are well and Jim and his large family remains in the Kankakee Area. John and Steve are in Colorado with their families. Billie Jean and her husband lives in Hersher and are grandparents to 6 and one on the way. I do not have grandchildren yet but my 3 sons are grown and doing wonderful things with their lives. ##imported-begin##Gayle Davis##imported-end##

“ I was sorry to read that your mom passed away. My mom and dad both died this year and though they lived a good and long life it is still difficult to loose a parent. May God give you the strength to deal with your loss and help you to only remember the good times you had when your mom was alive. My sympathy. ##imported-begin##Margie Hult Milone##imported-end##
