

Alice Lydia Cole-Madson

March 3, 1940 - September 27, 2021

Alice Lydia Cole-Madson, age 81, of St. Anne passed away Monday, September 27, 2021 in Kankakee. She was born March 3, 1940 in Olney, the daughter of Errett Hancock & Ruth Louise (Marquardt) Cole.

Alice graduated with her B.S. from Southern Illinois University in Carbondale and received her master's in Urban Teacher Education from Governor's State University.

Alice was a teacher for 24 ½ years in Development Math at Kankakee Community College. She had taught 38 years total, every grade except grades 4-6. Alice enjoyed reading, listening to music, and traveling. She was kind, compassionate, caring, and giving. Alice was always willing to help someone in need.

She was a member of the First Reformed Church of Wichert. She taught Sunday School and was a member of the choir and a soloist. Alice also sang on the radio church program and served as the Sunday School Superintendent.

Surviving are one sister, Louise Noxon of Riverbank, CA; one nephew, John (Geri) Noxon of Apple Valley, CA; and one great-nephew, Randy (Amanda) Noxon of CA. Alice is preceded in death by her parents; one son, Robert Madson; and one brother-in-law, Jack Noxon.

Visitation will be held from 9 a.m. until the time of the 10 a.m. funeral service on Thursday, September 30, 2021 at the First Reformed Church of Wichert. Interment will follow at Oakwood Cemetery in Wichert.

Memorials may be made to the St. Anne Food Pantry in care of First Reformed Church of Wichert.

Arrangements by Clancy-Gernon-Houk Funeral Home in St. Anne.
