

Alice Winters

October 18, 1976 - May 7, 2005

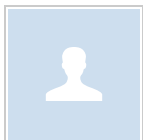

Memorial visitation for Alice J. Winters, 28, of Kankakee, will be from 3-8 p.m. Wednesday at Clancy-Gernon-Hertz Funeral Home, West Kankakee. Cremation rites have been accorded at Clancy-Gernon-Hertz Crematory. Burial will be in Evergreen Cemetery, Chebanse. Memorials may be made for her children's education or to the donor's choice. She died Saturday (May 7, 2005) at Provena St. Mary's Hospital. She was born Oct. 18, 1976 in Kankakee, the daughter of Frank and Debra Morrival Branz. She had worked at Hardee's on West Court and most recently as a dispatcher for a taxi company. She enjoyed Karaoke. Surviving are her ex-husband, Matt Cook of Indianapolis, Ind.; one son and daughter, Matthew Jr. and Erika Cook, both at home in Indiana; her mother of Chebanse; one sister and brother-in-law, Shirley and Tim Perkins of Kankakee; one brother, Frank Branz III of Chebanse; and many aunts, uncles and cousins. Her father and grandparents are deceased.

 Believe Every now and then soft as breath upon my skin
 I feel you come back again And it's like you haven't been gone a moment from my side Like the tears were never cried Like the hands of time are holding you and me
 And with all my heart I'm sure we're closer than we ever were I don't have to hear or see, I've got all the proof I need There are more than angels watching over me
 I believe, I believe That when you die your life goes on It doesn't end here when you're gone
 Every soul is filled with light
 It never ends
 and if I'm right Our love can even reach across eternity
 I believe, I believe Forever, you?
 re a part of me Forever, in the heart of me And I'll
 hold you even longer if I can The people who don't see the most Say that I believe in ghosts And if that makes me crazy, then I am
 ?Cause I believe
 There are more than angels watching over me I believe, I believe ALICE, FOREVER
 YOU WILL ALWAYS BE IN OUR HEARTS!
