Dear David - Thank you for your heartfelt words. After 20+ years in not seeing you, I was very touched with your post. My dad was a great man and our hearts are hurting. It has been very difficult, as I am close to my parents, having lived in town for 53 years. He had a lot of faith and I am sure he is in heaven, playing baseball

“ Ambrose was my bosom buddy, my tomato expert, my walking partner, my baseball pitcher, my ride to college, and my Grandpa. His solution for broken things was; "Try a little black tape. That oughta do the trick." Sitting with him on the porch swing was like visiting a history museum; he always talked about way back when...sharing war stories, growing up stories, and asking you about your story. I will truly miss you, Grandpa. You will forever be in my heart. Love, Nan

“ Grandpa took me Golfing for my first time ever. He never let me hit the ball but encouraged me to get in the water and retrieve balls for him. As a Cubs fan I truly appreciate the fact I can tell my friends my grandpa played for the Cubs organization. I wasn't able to be around in the recent years but will cherish my memories with him forever. Thanks for the coolest middle name ever. Joseph Ambrose Christophersen
