“ Our deepest sympathy to Pat and Bill, Amy's parents. Pat and I have been best friends since grade school (a very LONG time). I rememeber Pat's excitement at marrying Bill, a real helpmate in all things. We have always lived apart but have kept in touch with our hearts and the mail. Pat, Amy looked so much like you as a young woman. I remember you describing her as a warrior of a woman. Having a Wonder Woman as a daughter is a personal strength that you as parents helped her develop. Know that you will see her again as a healed, amazing person when you are all HOME. Please introduce her to me in heaven too! We love you all. We know your hearts are broken. Love and prayers....Don and Marilyn Lindholm

“ So sad to hear of Amy's passing. I knew her many years ago when I was the speech therapist for her two youngest sweeties. She was always full of smiles and went out of her way to do her best for her children. I don't recall all the parents I worked with, but I do recall her fondly. Sympathies to your family.

“ To the entire Golding family, I'm so sad Amy is no longer with us, she was such a beautiful soul. Wish I could be there to comfort the family and to visit. With sadness in my heart I quote this from a greeting card " Perhaps they are not the stars, but rather openings in Heaven where the love of our lost ones shines down to let us know they are with us." When I see the bright star I'll be thinking of Amy.

“ Jeff, truly sorry to learn of Amy passing, your house was always one of my favorite mail deliveries because of the warm reception I was always given, & I also remember Amy all the way back as a teen growing up when I delivered on West River St. A terrible loss for your family & friends, stay strong.
