“ He was much more than you can put into words.....he was the most wonderful man on earth... he taught me how to be a man, tough but gentle, lead by example, hard working, provider, supporter, funny, loving, and so many other things I could list....and he did this all by just watching him as I grew up.....he loved everyone and everyone loved him

I hope and wish that I can & will leave an impression on people how he did.....i will miss you so much...i'm so broken and weak right now, but what you've taught me in life I know I will persevere and my life will be ok. 💔😭

I LOVE YOU DAD!

“ Uncle Andy was my Godfather, my parents chose him to become my overseer, my teacher in the way of Jesus Christ.... my parents trusted Andy to be there for me... they proclaimed this to God at my baptism...
My uncle saved my life, when I fell off of the dock into a lake, near mornence, when I was a child.... my parents made the right decision..
Lord you have your angel home now... Rest in peace uncle Andy... prayers to your wife and children...God bless

“ I was sadden to hear that you passed away, but your in a better place now, no more pain, I wanted to share that when my sister and I and brother were younger we would go to visit Uncle Andy, he always made you feel welcome, he would always tell ya a joke, and make us laugh, I love visiting him and his family, my cousins. I loved the family reunions, he loved to dance, joke around with everyone in the family, never a dull moment with him around, so I say to him, fly high in the sky like an eagle, watch over his family and comfort them in their time of need, I know that we will meet again Uncle Andy, I know your up there with the girls playing cards and having fun! From the Dillon family, we say We Love you, We will miss you truly, until we meet again in heaven above, R.I.P.

“ my brother Andy and I used to hang out all the time at the pool hall and restaurant that his best friend parents owned we went to the square in Kankakee rode around then hooked up with our friends and went to parties...Andy was the life of the party every where we went always making everyone laugh at his jokes, making them feel they were special...and jamming out to his favorite song Susie Q his smile was contagious, he was laid back and never ever had any thing bad to say about anyone...but the best memory I have of my big brother is when the minute mom and dad turned in for the night Andy thought it was cool to take dads car and go joy riding boy did we worry because he would always drive it back into the yard only minutes before dad walked into the kitchen but those were the days oh and one other thing when we were playing cowboys and Indians and no one wanted to be Indians so Andy and I did and tied everyone up and set the barn on fire then we hid in the out house and got a spanking boy big brother ill cherish them memories always I'm gonna miss you so I will love you always and forever.R.I.P.big brother of mine love ya Janie
