

Andrew Thomas Guentert

December 13, 1958 - June 21, 2016

Andy Guentert, 57, passed away unexpectedly on Tuesday, June 21. He was born of Mary and Joseph Guentert in South Bend, Indiana, graduated from St. Joseph High School and apprenticed as a watchmaker, which became his lifelong passion and his profession. He had advanced professional training in Neuchatel, Switzerland, and was an active member of the American Watchmakers-Clockmakers Institute.

He is survived by his wife, Becky (Cox) Guentert, and eight brothers and sisters: Anne Cassler (Humble, TX), Joseph Guentert (Charlotte, NC), Louise Springer (Eagle River, WI), Christine Morningstar (Rocky Mount, NC), Mary Kopp (Greenlawn, NY), Lawrence Guentert (West Point, IN), Margaret Simmons (Ft. Myers, FL), and Paul Guentert MD (South Bend, IN). He has a large extended family, including over 40 brothers and sisters-in-law, nieces, nephews, cousins.

He was loved by his family throughout his life for his well-known quick wit and his extraordinarily gentle disposition. All children adored him, and he was always considered the “favorite uncle” of more than 20 nieces and nephews, grand-nieces and grand-nephews.

A memorial visitation will be held Monday June 27, 2016 from 4-8PM at Clancy-Gernon Funeral Home in Bourbonnais. A memorial service will be held Tuesday June 28, 2016 at 10AM at St. Paul Episcopal Church in Kankakee. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the family's wishes.

“ It has been several weeks since my brother Andy died. I was 14 when he was born, the cutest brother named Andy that I had (inside joke started by Dad). I could not even open the memories until today. I miss you, Andy. You were so wonderful to my kids and all your nephews and nieces. You were always there when they needed you ...and they sure needed you . You are now with Danny and Annie. I miss you. Love, Big sis Anne

“ So sorry for your loss. As happens with cousins, we grew apart. But I will never forget the laughter and quick smile. May God give you the grace of remembering the happy times that you shared and the ability to forget any misunderstandings. Rest in the Peace of God's arms Andy.

“ Andy was such a great friend. He always had a smile and a joke to lighten any situation. He always made me laugh and would do anything to help his friends. I am so lucky to have had Andy in my life. Thanks buddy!!

“ I'll never forget Andy telling anyone who walked in a room "You look marvelous" which he copied from Billy Crystal from a Saturday Night Live skit. It was hilarious.

“ Dearest Becky and family....words cannot express our deep sympathy to all of you. Andy was our good friend and we spoke quite often. We are certainly going to miss him. A great guy with a beautiful smile and positive attitude. We regret that we will be unable to visit with all of you. Carl is still recovering from liver cancer and Michelene has recently been diagnosed with kidney cancer and she is facing surgery soon. May our Dear Lord keep Andy in his loving arms. “ I was so sorry to hear of Andy's passing. I have so many fond memories of him growing up, of the whole family. We had a lot of great times. Andy will be sorely missed. Love, hugs, and condolences to Becky, and all of my Joe Guentert cousins. Much sorrow, Shelley (Guentert) Wydrzynski.

Michelle (Shelley Guentert) Wydrzynski - June 24, 2016 at 08:43 AM

“ Here is one of my favorite Andy memories. Andy was my best man at my wedding. While waiting for the wedding to start, Andy and I were extremely nervous and experiencing stomach "issues" that normally come with it. The pastor opens the door to tell us the wedding would begin shortly. He makes a funny face and says "man, I had no idea you were performing an exorcism in here! I'll come back when you're done!" It took us twenty minutes to quit giggling.

Andy was truly the only person I have ever met that when he asked "how are you doing?" He truly meant it. Whether you will 12 or 30 he always made you feel like the most important person in the room.

Its evident through the messages here and on Facebook that you had a huge impact on many lives. We will miss you! Pat

“ It is so incredibly touching to read the outpouring of love and admiration for my uncle Andy. He was such an incredible person and I don't think he knew how much people thought of him. I would love to hear his chuckle just one more time. Aunt Becky, I am so sorry for your loss, but I am so incredibly grateful that you came into his life and our family. Sending you so much love. Love, Katie
