“ I had many classes with Andy during High School. We graduated the same year. He always made the classes that he was in, extremely fun. ï¿½Never a dull moment when Andy was around. Then we met again at Court Street Ford. ï¿½He ALWAYS treated me extremely well!!!! He treated me as he would want his sister or his mother to be treated. He always had a smile on his face. The best personality! He took good care of me and my car. He always went above and beyond his expectations at his job. I just can't believe he is gone. My thoughts and prayers will be going out to him, his family, & his friends in their time of need. Rest in Peace, Andy. I will truly miss you!###imported-begin##Justine Miller###imported-end##

“ Tribute to Andy
The following was inspired by a poem written by Andy titled ?Papa Russ? following the death of his grandfather Drew
When we think of you these past years, gee there?s just so much,
The colored hair, your grin, the hats, and your always gentle touch.
Not a moment goes by when we?re not missing you;
It especially hurts for us to think of all that you went through.
You are a guiding light, when no one else is there;
Even when no one seems to, we know that you still care.
All of us who knew you, mourn that fateful day,
Each of us together, in each our special way.
We never will forget you, as we struggle to the dawn
Today we all are grieving, because that you are gone.
Your spirit and spunk - a driving force, behind your unique style,
Today, we?re proud to have known you, and say it with a smile.
The days ahead are full of dread, like music with no sound,
It?s hard to sing a cheerful tune, knowing you are not around.
They say that time heals all -- the wise men tell us so,
But no one knows what fate decides, or when it?s time to go.
When we?re feeling down and out, we?ll know just who to call;
Your spirit?s like a wrestler?s mat, that breaks our every fall.
Farewell, dearest Drew, rest in peace ? we send you on your way;
Family and friends will cherish your life, each and every day.
Written in loving memory September 25, 2009.
Uncle Steve

“ "I have only slipped away into the next room, I am I, and you are you. Whatever we were to each other, that we still are. Call me by my old familiar name. Speak to me in the easy way which you always used to. Play, smile, think of me. All is well. I promise"

Andy always knew how to make you laugh and cheer you up when you needed it most.What a jokester! He was always there and a great friend. He will never be forgotten. Always on our minds and forever in our hearts. When we look to the sky, we will wink and say "hey buddy" Our hearts go out to his closest family and friends.

“ "Remembrance is a golden chain

Death tries to break,

but all in vain.

To have, to love, and then to part

Is the greatest sorrow of one's heart.

The years may wipe out many things

But some they wipe out never.

Like memories of those happy times

When we were all together."

Many tender memories soften your grief,

May fond recollection bring you relief,

And may you find comfort and peace in the thought

Of the joy that knowing your loved one brought...

For time and space can never divide

Or keep your loved one from your side

When memory paints in colors true

The happy hours that belonged to you.
