“ My heart is so sad for all of us that loved this amazing woman. I loved her since I was nine years old and my love for her grew stronger as an adult. I counted on her for her insightful wisdom, humor in difficult times, and positive thoughts for the future.

I will miss you forever my sweet Annie. You have earned your time to rest and be with your loved ones that went before you.

I am also sending huge hugs to Doug, and my beautiful cousins Megan and Molly and their beautiful families. I was so sad that I could not be there to give my hugs in person. I know you will all be there for each other. Sending my love and wishing you all peace. "Dibby Doo"

“ My dear sweet Annie and I have been friends for 63 years. For so many years we have talked several times a week and have enjoyed many years of visiting each other. We know and love each of our families. My heart is so very sad and missing such a awesome close friend. She is spreading light and humor from above and I miss her every day and cherish our wonderful memories.

I am so sad to learn That Ann is no longer here on earth to share her humor, candor and zest for life with . I graduated from high school with Ann and she was as authentic and true to herself all the years I saw her at class reunions. It was after our last reunion she said let's keep in touch on Facebook. What a gift she was to all who knew her. And I know Rosemary Zander Fahlgren knows this well. My heart is heavy for her family. Rest In Peace Dear Ann.
