“ I got matched with Annabelle for my "Social Work with the Aging" class at Olivet Nazarene University. She was a wonderful and inspiring woman to get to know during that semester, and I am sad to hear of her passing. I actually still have the paper saved of the life story she shared with me, and thought if anyone in her family saw this and was interested I could certainly mail a copy for you to have. Please call me at Catholic Charities, if interested, (815) 933-7791 x 126. My thoughts and prayers are with her family as you mourn her passing but celebrate her life.

“ Dear Karen and family, my thoughts and prayers are with you as you bid farewell to the physical mother whom you have loved. I know that your faith will sustain you in this separation. I hope your memories and the presence of those whom you share childhood memories will lift you up in courage and peace.

“ I'm so sorry to hear about Annabelle's passing. I used to work at Our Lady of Victory years ago, and I enjoyed her company very much. I can say; Annabelle was not shy about telling me how she wanted things done. After a while we became good friends, and I appreciated her wisdom and advice very much. She was a friend to me and many people at Our Lady, She will be missed.
