“ I write to offer my sincere condolences on the passing of your love one. When the enemy death strikes our grief can be great. ¶½It may even seem unfair that death has the power to take away someone we love ¶½Yes, it is at times like this that we need comfort and support whether we are acquainted or not. ¶½I have found the Bible to be very comforting in this regard. ¶½At Revelation 21: 3, 4, our Heavenly Father has promised in the near future that ?death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. ¶½The former things have passed away.? ¶½Our Heavenly Father has also promised that there will be a resurrection: ?and I have hope toward God, which hope these [men] themselves also entertain, that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous...” ¶½What a grand reunion that will be! ¶½You and I have the prospects of seeing our love ones again under the best condition possible, a beautiful Paradise earth; God?s original purpose for mankind. ¶½All of God's promises will come true, for it is impossible for Our Heavenly Father Jehovah to lie. ¶½Please look up the cited scriptures in your personal copy of the Bible. ¶½Once again, you have my sincere condolences -John 5:28 & 29, Psalms 37:29, Luke 23:43, Hebrews 6:18. ¶½
