“ *It was my pleasure to have Arkland as a member of my Bonfield congregation. He, and his wife, Joyce, were a real asset to the life of the Bonfield church and to the community.
May God be gracious to him now as he has departed this earthy life.*

“ Dear Joy and family,

We are so sorry to hear about the passing of your father, Arland. I remember him well from visits to the farm during high school. He was a great father to Joy and always welcoming to me on my visits and sleepovers.

You will be in our thoughts and prayers during this difficult time.
