

Arvilla Andros

June 1, 1915 - November 20, 2008

Arvilla Andros -- Kankakee Visitation for Arvilla Elizabeth Andros, 93, of Kankakee, will be from noon to 1 p.m. Monday at the Clancy-Gernon-Hertz Funeral Home. Burial will be in Mound Grove Gardens. Memorials may be made to Annunciation Greek Orthodox Church, where she was a member. She died Thursday (Nov. 20, 2008) at Bradley Royale Health Care Center. Mrs. Andros was a nurse at St. Mary's Hospital and other doctors' offices for 20 years, retiring in 1977. She was born June 1, 1915, in Emmington, the daughter of John and Sabina Fulton Yaeger. Her husband, Andrew Andros, whom she married Sept. 22, 1940, died in 1974. She graduated from Illinois Wesleyan University and Brokaw Hospital. She enjoyed crocheting and knitting. Surviving are several nieces and nephews. Deceased are one sister, Ruth Yaeger-Ridings; and five brothers, Eugene, Kenneth, Donald, Robert and an infant brother, Delbert.

Tribute Wall

“ I felt very close to you. I loved you very much and was very sad to see you pass.##imported-begin##Amber##imported-end##

November 21, 2008 at 03:43 PM