“ Sending love and prayers to the Papineau Family. Mrs. Papineau was a dear Neighbor I use to come over and sit with her many evenings on their porch: Mr. Papineau too. We would chat about the weather or my sons which I have 5 they were particularly fond of my youngest Cameron. Mr. Papineau would see Cameron at church at St Martin's when he was an altar boy. Cameron started playing the violin and they loved to hear about his concerts. Mrs. Papineau was a sweetheart I would bring her cookies and things I made. She would share with Mr.Papineau making sure he didn't get too much as diabetic. She was so dear. I know she is with Mr. Papineau content now. She fussed over him when he was so ill he would get grumpy but they loved each other deeply. May God bless her little soul. Once again they are together again God bless them both. Love, Susan L.Potter
