“ May you find the courage to face tomorrow in the love that surrounds you today. At this time of sorrow may these truths sustain you.....your loved one will always be as close as a memory
and the God of all comfort is always as close as a prayer. It will be the little things that you will remember the quiet moments, the smiles, the laughter. And although it may seem hard right now, it will be the memory of these little things that help to push away the pain and bring the smiles back again. I have fought the fine fight, I have run the course to the finish, I have observed the faith.-2Timothy 4:7. As for me, I will lie down that I may sleep; I shall certainly awake, for Jehovah himself keeps supporting me. -Psalms 3:5

“ I just learned of your mom's death, and I wanted to say how sorry I was to hear of it. I remember your mom fondly from when I was in high school, many years ago. And yet, the memory of her is still as fresh in my mind as if it were yesterday. I felt an immediate pang in my heart when I heard the news that she had died because she meant so much to me. I'll never forget her kindness and love toward me during those years. She treated me like I was part of your family. I can honestly say that she will always hold a special place in my heart and in my memories. I loved your mom very much. Thanks for letting me share how I felt about her.##imported-begin##Michael Angelo##imported-end##

“ Our deepest sympathies to the family of Avis. ĩ½She was a very warm and caring person, as I remember on visits to her home with her Brother-in-Law, Bill. ĩ½She was always very accommodating to me, even though she didn't know me that well. Her children were blessed in having two very wonderful parents, as I made a few trips with Peanut, and we always had the greatest time with him. ĩ½May she rest in peace, and may perpetual light shine upon her.##imported-begin##Dewey & Lou Kilbride##imported-end##
