“ She was truly one of God’s best gifts to us . She was truly a loving and giving person . My aunt Barb and uncle Ron. Russel and I became friends when we moved back to the hollow in second grade . His parents truly treated me like family throughout all my school years and after that . Cub scouts , middle school and high school. They bought me a gold necklace for me many years ago and I still have it to this day . She will always hold a special place in my heart and I will never forget her . She always made sure I ate and did my school work like aunt Theresa . The Shepard family and the Hilts family guided me through my High school years and helped make me who I am today. Gonna miss you aunt Barb . Love You Dennis Kilcoyne
