“ I cannot even believe this is real. Barbie and Lance have been there practically all my life. They provided me with the knowledge to love da Bears, Walter Payton is the greatest football player ever, bowling should always be the best sport, the White Sox fans and the Cubs fans shouldn't mix (unless its me an Lance), every Christmas I got a box full of wrapped presents, every child should swim in the giant round bathtub, playing Uno at the kitchen table and Mema stopping, a giant orange stuffed tiger, how to make tacos, and every year you should get a new Christmas ornament. There are so many memories I have of Barbie, I'm not even sure I covered the basics. I will always love you and miss you forever. I'm glad you are peaceful now as an angel.

“ I grew up with my cousin Barb, as we were only 6 months apart in age. Spending nights together as well as getting into mischievous trouble all the time was our greatest memories. I will miss our phone calls and catching up on our lives, children , grandchildren, and the family get togethers. I will truly miss her a lot.

“ Barb was a great cousin. She watched over me like a mom after mine passed away. She always believed in me and working as a manager she gave me my first job. She was a wonderful friend also. Her example as a mother was truly inspirational. Rest in peace in the hands of our Lord.

My cousin Barbara was a very giving, charitable and loving person. Spent time at her house as a child and always enjoyed her and her family. She did so much for the needy through her years at the Salvation Army. God has rewarded her loving charity, I am sure.
