“ *Karen & Claire and family,

The years I spent with your mom will always hold a special place in my heart. The times we sang, danced, and laughed together will continue to bring joy to me. I still have many photos of our fun at Bridges. My favorite will always be of her all dressed up for the prom.

Your mom was and will continue to be one of the most delicate, refined, and lovely ladies I will ever have the pleasure of knowing. I can only hope that I was able to bring a little joy to her world like she did mine.

We all loved her very much and sweet Barbara will be sadly missed.

God Bless You All!

“ Aunt Barbara was my favorite aunt. I remember visiting her farm a couple of times when I was a girl and hanging out with her daughter Nancy. I had such a great time, and I used to day dream about growing up there. I remember Barbara seemed like a happy woman with a sunny disposition. I was shy, but I immediately liked her, and I always have. I am very sad for her daughters, and for my mother in this time of loss. I feel a deep sense of loss too. But I am happy that Aunt Barbara is okay now and she's with God. My prayers go out to her family. You will all be in my thoughts and prayers for some time to come. Remember the happy times and stay strong in God's comfort, until you meet up with her again. Love,
Sharon Ippolito

“ Dear Karen, Claire and all of the family, I hope these words bring some comfort. Love, Lainie & Vika

Death is nothing at all . . . I have only slipped away into the next room. I am I, and you are you. Whatever we were to each other, that we are still. Call me by my old familiar name, speak to me in the easy way you always used. Put no difference into your tone; wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow. Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes we enjoyed together. Play, smile, think of me, pray for me. Let my name be ever the household word that it always was. Let it be spoken without effect, without the ghost of a shadow on it. Life means all that it ever meant. It is the same as it ever was; there is absolutely unbroken continuity. Why should I be out of mind because I am out of sight? I am waiting for you, for an interval, somewhere very near just around the corner. . . . All is well.
