“ Barry always used to call me about the third quarter of the Bears game to talk about how they were playing, we'd talk almost to the end of the game. And without fail, he would call every year on my birthday and sing Happy Birthday - In French- and how I will miss those two things forever.

Barry J. Amiano, may you rest in peace, my dear friend. Your presence was a beacon of light in every group conversation. I will fondly recall our shared ISU stories, sports discussions, and the joyous laughter that filled the air when we were all gathered with our spouses.
