“ *Bea , Is our cousin by marriage but we didn't know that. We loved her like a Aunt . she never treated us any different then any other kid. I am sure when she saw all the York's get out of the car she wanted to run but she didn't she just hugged us and welcomed us because all the Jackson's and York's in one place was more work for her .because that means that Harry's kids and Charlie's kids too would all be over ..oh boy !!! Poor Bea she was the only one that would put up with all of us (For awhile)

 I remember that Smile of hers i½.. and I remember Pam I remember how she would hold her and feed her and kiss her and how much she loved her and you know how much it hurt her to give Pam back to God I remember that too .. and now she and Pam are together and so happy i½let's remember that and try to be Happy for them its so very sad for us I know You will miss her , You will see her again someday i½with love The York's i½###imported-begin##Judy Thompson###imported-end##*
