“ Great Uncle Bennie and Great Aunt Goldie were my godparents and our family loved going to see them. My mother Gertrude Brenneisen,Aunt Stella Lafond and I would have a rousing good time playing Liverpool Rummy.with Aunt Goldie. Uncle Bennie would get out a spread of antipasto type foods. He was so much fun. Miss them both, but will see them in heaven.

“ Terry, you have my deepest sympathy.

I don't usually read the paper, but for some reason I glanced through it a work this morning. I then saw Uncle Benny. He was a wonderful person and a greatly respected Veteran---God Bless Him!

I have so many warm and fun memories of him and Aunt Goldie and you.

Our memories will last with us.

I love you. God Bless You.
