“ Pat,

I was sorry to see that your mother had passed. You have my deepest sympathy. I still have both my parents and feel very blessed. I met your son when he brought in your mother's obit. Very nice gentleman. The years sure go by fast. I have three grown children and four grandchildren. Take care.

“ "Do not let your heart be troubled..."

 ĩ¿½what assurance in that voice

That acknowledges our sorrow ĩ¿½and

yet offers us the choice

To ask for God's protection ĩ¿½and surrender all our fears

To the One who holds tomorrow

 ĩ¿½and will wipe away all tears.
