

Beth Ann Hubert

March 13, 1961 - November 25, 2008

Beth Coy-Hubert -- Elmwood Park Beth Ann Coy-Hubert, 47, of Elmwood Park, died Tuesday (Nov. 25, 2008) at Gottlieb Memorial Hospital in Melrose Park, surrounded by her loving family, following a sudden illness. A celebration of her life will be held from 2 p.m. today until the 5 p.m. memorial service at the Clancy-Gernon Funeral Home in Bourbonnais. The Rev. Dennis Settles of St. Martin of Tours Catholic Church will officiate. Cremation rites have been accorded. Memorials may be made to the Arthritis Foundation for rheumatoid research. Ms. Hubert was a certified histotechnologist employed by Our Lady of the Resurrection Medical Center in Chicago and previously had been employed at Provena St. Mary's Hospital in Kankakee. She was born March 13, 1961, in Kankakee, the daughter of Carl and Janet (Offerman) Coy. She attended St. Martin of Tours Grade School and Bishop McNamara High School. Surviving are her parents of Bourbonnais; one son and daughter-in-law, Nicholas and Jessica Hubert and one grandson, Carson of Buffalo Grove; two sisters, Linda (Jim) Coffey of Park Ridge, Sally (Ron O'Connor) Boule of Limestone; four brothers, Christopher (Jeannie) Coy of Wheat Ridge, Colo., Steven (Dena) Coy and Andrew (Sherry) Coy of Bradley and Brett (Carrie) Coy of Lakewood, Colo.; 11 nieces and nephews; one great-niece; uncles, Ronald (Marty) Offerman and David Offerman of California; and her many dear friends. She was preceded in death by her grandparents, Earl and Beatrice Offerman, and Louis and Mary Coy. Beth was devoted to her family and friends, and lived life to the fullest, enjoying every moment. She was the life of any event.

“ Jan, Carl and Family,

I extend my condolences to all of you. Beth was such a beautiful person in many ways. We had so much fun working together in Histology. I felt privileged to have been able to teach and mentor Beth so she could become a registered in the field of Histology. My thoughts and prayer are with all of you.
