“ I have known Betty for over 45 years. All those early years ago Betty was fierce, tenacious and strong willed. A real fighter! She held her family together by sheer force of will when life presented what for most would have been insurmountable challenges and set backs.

As time went by I came to know Betty's softer side as experienced vicariously thru her relationship with her Daughter Karen, as well as thru occasional trips back Chicago home that were never truly complete unless I got to visit with Betty.

Early in life Betty was severely tested and honorably did what duty required of her. After those hardships lessened she began earnestly doing what the joy of living demanded. Betty met all challenges gracefully and later came to possess a true 'joie de vivre!'

Betty was always a remarkable lady!

Betty, Rest In Peace as you so richly deserve!

Your eternal friend, Jim Galletto.

“ Those we love don't go away. They walk beside us every day.
Unseen, unheard, but always near.
So loved, so missed, so very dear

*You will always be in my heart and mind.
God Bless your Soul, Betty Earleywine*
