“ To my family, I am so sorry that grandma is gone, but I think we all know in our hearts she is in a better place. I loved her so much and I will miss her. She was a fun grandma! I will always remember how feisty she was, I loved that about her. I wish I could be there with all of you now, I'm so sorry I'm not. The girls and I love you all!##imported-begin##nicole gutierrez##imported-end##

“ I wish I had some magical words to say. It is very difficult to loose your mother. Mine died in 1999. All I can say is God be with you and give you strength to make it through. Again, I am so sorry for your loss. Lisa, I would love to touch base with you again. Please write me or call. In case you don't know who I am (Karen Hasbargen)##imported-begin##Karen Ernst-Kendall##imported-end##

“ Dear Rodney & family, We are so sorry for your loss. We understand the difficult time this is for you. The happy memories will help get you through. Rhonda has to work Tuesday night & has jury duty Wednesday morning, so will not be able to make the services. We really wanted to meet all of you for once. God Bless you all & remember our sincere thoughts are with you.##imported-begin##Rhonda & Velma Rasche##imported-end##
