“ I am taking with my daughter and were talking about her Grandma. I'm telling her all about her. I met Bev when I was 14 I was dating Jim. She was one of the most kindest woman I ever met. I enjoyed working with her. And when I was pregnant she said you have to have Ashley on my birthday. I told her I was due later. Well on July 22 1993 I went in labor and she was so happy knowing her grand child was born the same day as her. I will never forget her she was one of a kind. Hopefully she watches over her grand daughter. Rip You been gone so long.

“ To All Of Bev's Family,

Im truly sorry to see her go. But I know that she is the happiest person right now. She finally will be with your sister Brenda after all these years.

I know its a sad time for all of you but look at how happy she is.

All you boys stay together because you are what is left of your family.

Love always

Anne

“ My most heartfelt sympathy to the entire family. Bev was one of the truly nice ladies that has come into my life. She had a heart of gold. Her and Chuck together were such an awesome pair, so much fun to be around. She truly made people welcome, no matter where they came from. Now she has been made welcome where she will suffer no more. Just keep her memory alive in your hearts and she will remain with you always.##imported-begin##Donna (Corriveau)Cole##imported-end##
