“ We would like to extend our sympathy to Bev's family.

Bev took such an interest in our son, Timmy when he was playing for the Bears. i½She always asked about him, even a few months ago when we saw her having dinner at Bill's Diner she remembered him fondly, after more then 20 years. i½

Bev fought a long and good battle before going home to the Lord.

May her soul rest in peace.###imported-begin###Deacon Andy and Carol Berg###imported-end##

“ I have so many fond memories of wonderful times spent with Beverly. ĩ½She was so full of life and love for everyone. If someone did not have a smile, Beverly would certainly give them one of hers. ĩ½She was always ready to lend a helping hand when it was needed.

Since she was a nurse, she had the knowledge that most of us lack concerning her particular illness. ĩ½

Rest assured that she is watching over all of her loved ones.

 ĩ½ĩ½My upmost sympathy goes to Patrick, Ryan, Kara, Barbara, Chuck, and Charles. ĩ½I do know that each one of you have so many wonderful fun filled memories to share with one another. ĩ½My prayers are with all of you. ĩ½

I am so very sorry that I ĩ½could not attend Bev's memorial service.

“ I grew up in Beaverville with Bev / Barb and Chuck. Growing up in Beaverville, everyone was extended family.

Bev was the same age as my older brother Stan, and our parents visited back and forth some. Both our families have since left Beaverville but I was saddened to see the Obituary in the paper. I remember how 'vibrant' Bev was. She seemed to embrace life and always made whatever she was doing look like fun.

I'm praying that your memories provide comfort at this difficult time.

“ I tried to make the trip to see Beverly, my husband wouldn't let me drive my van unless I got tires on the front end. I could not get in anywhere on Saturday afternoon. ĩ½I had to be in at work on Monday, my husband is on an indefinite lay off and I could not afford to miss any work. I was hoping to see my brother, Donald, and his wife, Mary Lou. ĩ½I wanted to bring my daughter, Lindsey, to meet some of her family that she has never seen. ĩ½My love to all, and deepest sympathy to Patrick.##imported-begin##Patricia Wilson##imported-end##

“ Bev came into our lives when we purchased our beloved "Penny"(a beautiful fawn Boxer from the O'Connor's first litter) back in 1992. ĩ½We became friends, and did the "Boxer thing" for many years.

Bev was a "beautiful" person and had an absolutely fantastic sense of humor that "made everyone's day."

Everywhere Bev went she brought happiness with her even though she was "struggling" with her failing health.

It is truly a sad day for us and everyone in the Boxer world. We didn't get to talk too much in recent times as when I would call Bev it was evident she wasn't up to talking. So I took my "cues" and tried to let her rest.

Our deepest sympathy to Patrick, Ryan, and Kara. Our prayers are with you at this time.##imported-begin##Murill & Celia Calbert##imported-end##

“ My heart goes out to you all in the loss of your wife, mother, daughter and i;½sister. I'm sorry I couldn't be there tonight to express my deepest sympathy to you all on your loss.

I have fond memories of Beverly growing up in Beaverville. The thing I remember most was her joy of life, her big smile and her contagious laugh--that I think she inherited from her Mom!

I will keep all of you in my thoughts and prayers.##imported-begin##Barbara Arseneau##imported-end##
