“ I was very sorry to hear about Brandon. I am sure he is at peace now. Even tho it is hard to lose a child, we have to remember they are only on loan from God. To his wife and children; I am sure you have memories that will last forever. I will always remember the little boy who was friendly and always full of energy and loved video games. “ My thoughts and prayers are with Brandon's immediate family, and his own. He was always trying to make us laugh, and will certainly be in our memories forever. I personally apologize that I couldn't make the ceremony, as I was informed too late. But nonetheless, he would want us to remember all of the laughs, and good times we shared with him!##imported-begin##Brandon Gifford##imported-end##
