“ That is a Lady that'll truly be missed. She was always a pleasure to meet and always made me feel like we were best friends no matter how long it had been that we'd seen each other. Played music with her and I can always say I'm glad I was friends with Her and Dick Miller.

“ She was my best friend (Troy's) mother but she was also my friend. She always welcomed me to her home and treated me as though I was one of her own. She will not be with us now physically but I somehow feel safer knowing that she will be watching over all of us with Richard by her side. I loved her for her beautiful personality and her fiery zest for her life. However, I'm most thankful for her ability as a mother. She instilled some of her best characteristics into her son and my best friend. The Coburns will miss you dearly Brenda and we will meet again in paradise. We love you Miller family!! Troy "Crash" , Diane and my favorite little buddy Chase Richard Miller!!!!!!
