“ I am deeply saddened to hear this. I remember when he used to pick me up from high school in his gold GTO. I sat by the window last class and would see him waiting and couldn't wait for the bell to ring. He was the only one who ever called me by my middle name. He always did and I loved that! I guess it was just between us. Rest in peace Brent. Donna

Judy, I am very sorry that you have lost Brent. I know what a crushing blow this is.

I remember being at your house in the country and enjoying time with Brent, playing basketball against the side of the garage, tormenting the pigs, etc.

I can still remember his ability to name a tractor by it's sound. He could easily pick out a Case, Deere, etc. It was amazing to me.

Again, I am sorry for you loss.
