“ I'm so sorry for you loss...BJ as we called him growing up...was such a special guy...my whole family loved him...and I know my brother Rudy Castro will miss him dearly...they grew up together...he was a part of our family...and as the years went by...I always thought back on those memories of him and my family playing basketball in our yard...and how every time me and my little sister Rachel would see him...we would lite up...he will be missed. May he live on in your hearts...

Sincerely,

The Castro Family##imported-begin##Rita Castro##imported-end##

“ My deepest condolences to Brock's family . He was a good friend to my sons Stephen and Joseph and the children played many an hour with my grandsons. I recently lost my father and I know this is hard to fathom , but Brock is in a better place now. Please keep strong and cherish the good memories of a loving son , father and Friend.##imported-begin##Stephen P Hager##imported-end##

“ Too one of my very best friends! Brock u have no idea how much u will be missed by some of you're best and closed bros., I am so sorry that I wasn't there too help u when u needed it, I know you were going threw alot at one time, the last time u e-mailed me wishing me a happy B-DAY is the last time we'll ever talk face too face. Brock I am in so much pain from losing u, the other day I wore a baseball cap backwards, I never wear hats at all, even in the winter time cause that's what u did, u were the true "ironman", and I was proud too be you're "BUD", it won't be the same when I come to town, no longer the 3 amigo's, Brock, Joe, Big T. I luv u man!!!##imported-begin##Anthony F. Morgan##imported-end##
