“ never a dull moment with my pal always had you going wether it was changing the tv or listening to him tell us just leave me alone or him asking you to get him his coke and letting you know when he was done by hitting the empty can on the side of the bed. My pal would never say good bye he would give the peace sign and say peace out. I would tell him we dont say good bye we say see you tomorrow and thats what he would tell me every time i left than in the morning he ask me where you been? I would have to admit he was one of my favorite people. so to you my pal may you R.I.P. you are sure going to be missed pal but i am happy to say there is no more pain my friend for you.
