

Carl Johnson

March 17, 1923 - April 27, 2006

Carl Johnson -- Manteno Visitation for Carl E. Johnson, 83, of Manteno, will be from 4-8 p.m. Monday at Clancy-Gernon Funeral Home, Manteno, and from 10 a.m. Tuesday at First Presbyterian Church in Manteno, until the 11 a.m. funeral service. Rev. Derek Morrison will officiate. Inurnment will be in Abraham Lincoln National Cemetery in Elwood at a later date. Memorials may be made to First Presbyterian Church in Manteno, where he was an elder. He died Thursday (April 27, 2006) at Riverside Medical Center. Mr. Johnson was a tool and die maker for Allis Chalmers for over 20 years. He was born March 17, 1923, in Chicago, the son of Charles T. and Victoria Berachus Johnson. He was a member of the Kankakee Carvers. He served during World War II in the U.S. Army. He loved fishing, boating, nature and doing jigsaw puzzles. Surviving are his wife, the former Martha Creviston of Manteno, whom he married Jan. 20, 1951, in Chicago; four daughters and one son-in-law, Joanna Whitten of Midlothian, Sue Johnson of Cary, Debra and Rich Alt of Homewood, Lisa Johnson of Cary; five grandchildren and four great-grandchildren; and six sisters, Dorothy Kemp of Benld; Jeanette Johnson and Phyllis Bruhn, both of Gillespie, Rose Damico of Oak Forest, Alice Nagy of Michigan and Victoria Hooks of Hamel. One sister, Irene, is deceased.

Tribute Wall

“ 1 file added to the album Tribute Album

Clancy-Gernon Funeral Homes - December 07, 2010 at 02:34 PM