“ Rest in peace, Carl. Look up my husband, Don, when you get to heaven. I remember in 1975/1976 you and your lady lived in the bottom, back apartment of the house on South Harrison in Kankakee. Don & I lived in the bottom, front. Those were some fun times with lots of beer drinking going on with you and Don. Sending comfort and healing prayers for your family and friends.

“ *Our deepest sympathy to the family of Carl. He was a resident in our apartment building in Chicago and unfortunately we did not know him too long but long enough to be friends.
