“ Carol's parents and my parents were friends from the time Carol and I were just a few months old. We were childhood friends, went to college together, and stood up in each other's weddings. After that, Carol's life and my life didn't parallel each other and through the years we grew apart. The last time I saw Carol - I believe - was at her Mom's wake. Carol was truly a wonderful person and a wonderful friend. Even though we didn't spend much time together these last years - I always treasure the friendship that we shared. Indeed she always did smile, and had that wonderful easy laugh. I had no idea that she was so ill. I am truly sorry, my sympathy to John, Lorna, Roger and the rest of her family.

“ Carol was a lovely person and a wonderful neighbor. She always had a smile on her face or gave a friendly wave when we saw each other across the hedge. We lived next door to Carol and John for 10 years. We would marvel at how early she would be out getting exercise in the summer. Their house and yard were always kept at a level we would strive to attain but never paralleled. Our thoughts and prayers are with John at this time.
