“ My beautiful and loving Aunt Carol. As a young boy, I will never forget the summers visiting the farm in St. Anne, witnessing the importance of family, the awesome fresh corn from the fields, dominating at the game of spoons with my cousins, driving these massive tractors around the parking lot and staying in these tiny little rooms on the second floor. Uncle Ronnie, after a long day of work, would lie on the couch with his shirt off and watch Charlie’s Angels... I am at peace now that Aunt Carol is with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, looking down on all of her family members she influenced so much. Love, Chris, Mariela, Sophia and Logan.
