“ Carol was one of the kindest and most beautiful woman I have met. Working with her was such a pleasure. No matter how bad the day may be or what job she got, she always put a smile on her face and mine. She treated everyone with open arms and never turned her back on a friend. I will miss her but I am thankful she suffers no more. God gave her his wings to become an angel, something we already knew we had on earth is now in peace with him.

“ there is so much to say about carol that are great thoughts of her one thought is that she was a great mom to all of her kids, there was times she would go with out so the kids good have the things they needed, than there was our going out times that will never be forgotten those were the good times, carol was a great lady and she will never be forgotten just one more thing i will never forget about her is that when i see her or the kids i would call her the old bitch and her response would be to give the finger and just do her smile that she would do. she will never be forgotten and she will be truely missed love to see her again but if the pain and suffering is gone for her than i will see her again when its my time to leave here so until we meet again you old b---h R.I.P. my friend
