“ I was very fond of Carolyn. I would often stop and talk with her when I was patrolling and we texted each other often and kept up with each other. She loved her little car and was so proud of it. And she loved going to her & John's home at Lake of the Ozarks and would tell me how she loved the water and looking up at the sky at night when the lake got quiet. I will miss you Carolyn. You were a good friend. Love you. !!
