“ Eric, Alexandra and I will always remember Cele as the kind and humorous mother who stood by her children through thick and thin. It is with sincere regrets that we cannot be with her and the Schkerke family at this time. We wish Judy, Charlie, Sidra and John our most sincere condolences and trust that their wonderful memories of Cele will provide them great comfort during this time. It is our desire to purchase a tree for the Charles Schkerke family to plant in honor of their mother and grandmother. We will remember Cele forever and chuckle often with her lucid suggestion to "come in out of the cornfield". Our love, the Bogguess and Scott Families

“ "Ceel" was such a good friend to our mother and grandmother, Margiene Betourne, who died November 2. When their group of ladies would attend 9:00 Mass on Sunday mornings and then go out for breakfast, it was mom's social event of the week. She always thought so highly of "Ceel". Last summer, mom spent 3 months at Manor Care and would see Ceel often. Our sympathy to Ceel's family and grandchildren. She spoke so highly of all of you. Such a lovely lady! I am certain that she has joined her little group of ladies and they are having a wonderful time!
