“ Jan..I was so sorry to see in the paper that your mom had died last week. I love the picture of her in the paper. She has such a sparkle in her eyes, just like the sparkle I often saw when we visited at Snyder Village. She was such a brave and beautiful lady. I wish I had known her when she was well. I bet she was so much fun. She and my mom would have been great friends. I imagine them now..healthy and visiting like old friends in the next world. You are such a devoted and wonderful daughter. I'm sorry I didn't get up to visit your mom or visit with you recently. I know the void it leaves in ones life when mom is no longer here; when every spare minute it seems like the car should be heading for Metamora; when it seems like a relief and yet very sad and lonely. I am praying that you find peace and joy in knowing your mom has moved on to better things and we will celebrate again with her someday. I I Let's keep in touch. ##imported-begin##Joanne Bloom##imported-end##

“ I was just asking my mother about Cele the other day cause I hadn't seen her around. My family grew up with Herb and Cele and the Daily Journal. Card parties, fishing trips, picnics. She was a great lady. My condolences. (My dad was Armand Korstick from the journal)

“ It's funny how you remember special people from your past. I probably haven't seen or talked to Ceal in over 25 years since I left Kankakee. She was such a special lady. I remember the many many times that Herb & Ceal and my parents were together when I was a kid since Herb & my dad worked together. I used to remember riding my bike over to their house, seeing them practically every time we went to Little Corporal for dinner, visiting her when I used to caddy for Herb & my dad, and of course back when Herb, my dad & myself were struck by lightning on a fishing outing in Lake Shelbyville, etc. Memories of special people such as them from my childhood make me so thankful for being a small part of their life. Godspeed.##imported-begin##Bill Korstick##imported-end##
