“ It has been a long time! I am glad I got to know you, and we had lived in the same neighborhood in our younger years! You are a lovable man! You may have been considered shy. You were a great friend and was surprisingly candid at times. All in all you were a person people would have been happy to get to know. Sadly missed, and until we meet again! God Bless!

“ Our most sincere condolences to the Clevenger Family for their loss. We only knew Charles though his work at Lowes and our son working with him there. He was a great guy with I believe a big heart always with a smile and big hello every time we saw him. From all we have heard and read here about him I only wish we would have taken the time to know him better. We know he will be really missed by all who knew him. I know our son thought the world of him. Godspeed Charles

“ Didn't know you long enough but you ALWAYS had a smile for me and put a smile on my face. One of the last things I told you was that I would never miss another opportunity to say hello. Well I will continue to remember you and the wonderful person you are. My heart hurts for all family and friends and all your Lowes family as well as I continue to hear your stories told amongst employees. You will be greatly missed by so many lives you have been apart of.
