

Charles Henry

October 9, 1933 - January 7, 2005

Charles O. Henry, 71, of Aroma Park, died Friday (Jan. 7, 2005) at Rush Presbyterian St. Luke's Medical Center in Chicago. He was an attorney in Kankakee for over 40 years, and the attorney for the Kankakee Valley Park District for 43 years. A gathering of friends will be held at 2 p.m. Friday at the Kankakee Valley Park District office (the corner of W. Court and Wall St.). Memorials may be made to the Kankakee Valley Park District. Arrangements are by Clancy-Gernon-Hertz Funeral Home, West Kankakee. Mr. Henry was born Oct. 9, 1933 in Normal, the son of Charles D. and Helen Mae Ogilvie Henry. Surviving are one sister-in-law, Flossie Henry; three nephews; one niece; and three great-nieces. One brother, John P. Henry, is deceased. Mr. Henry graduated from the University of Illinois and John Marshall Law School. He was a member of Pheasants Forever, Ducks Unlimited, the NRA, was an avid hunter and fisherman, and enjoyed snowmobiling.

Tribute Wall

“ I worked for Chuck in 1976, 77 & 78, and even up to a few months ago, he knew me and spoke with me every time we met. I enjoyed working for him, and learned a lot from him.
”
Marilyn DeYoung

January 12, 2005 at 01:51 PM

“ Chuck was a good man
”
Richard E. Savoie

January 12, 2005 at 01:51 PM

“ I wanted you to know that Chuck was like a father to me. My family spent a lot of time on the farm with him, riding four wheelers, tractors, we gardened with him and he loved our dog. He gave me my start in my career, still attending college Chuck hired me for part-time. He taught me more working for him than I learned in college. I will miss him terribly.

”
Cathy Campbell

January 12, 2005 at 01:51 PM